

Read 30 FOR 30 MINUTES DAYS

Take the 30 Minutes for 30 Days Challenge for Read Across Maryland!

Students! Parents! Teachers!

Share your experience of reading with someone special for 30 minutes a day for 30 days, and you could be chosen to win one of our top prizes:

A starring role in our next reading video or an Amazon Kindle!

Here's how

1. Download a 30-day reading calendar from www.readacrossmaryland.org or pick one up from your school or public library.
2. On March 2, start reading (parent to child, child to parent, teacher/librarian to students or read to yourself) for 30 minutes every day through March 31.
3. Post your favorite reading experience/moment as a comment, photo or video on www.readacrossmaryland.org or email to wbusse@mseanea.org between March 2 – April 7.

The winners will be announced April 14, 2010. Two participants will be chosen to receive an Amazon Kindle by a random drawing. The winners of the video opportunity will be chosen by MSEA staff judges – we're looking for humor and warmth! There are no age limitations, although children under 13 must have parental consent.
