

STAFF PHOTO BY JACQUI ATKIELSKI

Whistle while you work

A Massai warrior, performing under the name of Sarge, whistles Wednesday while chanting a traditional livestock call for an audience gathered at the Chesapeake Public Charter School. He and five other performers visited the school Wednesday, and were scheduled to visit Hollywood Elementary School on Thursday to perform for and share their culture with students. They are also trying to raise money for a water tower in Kenya through the World Artist Experience.